

The Port-Hen Protocol

LE DOMINIQUE DROUIN

ANNUAL SUMMER SALE OF HOUSEKEEPING LINENS

BEGINS MONDAY, AUG. 31.

Our entire stock of Imported Linens, including Damask Table Cloths, Napkins, Hemstitched Lunch Cloths, Tea Cloths and Sets, at

SPECIAL PRICES.

Linon Sheets and Pillow Cases, Bedroom and Bath Towels and broken lines of richly hand embroidered pieces, which include Bedspreads, Sheets, Pillow Cases, Scarfs, Shams, Tea Cloths, Lunch Cloths, Tray Cloths, Centres, Doilies, etc. Also our stock of Linen Suitings, at

ABOUT HALF PRICES.

N. B. Many of the above lots are Wm. Liddell's Gold Medal Brand of Irish Table Linens. The superiority and durability of these linens are due to the fact that they are grass bleached in the old-fashioned way by the agency of the rays of the sun, instead of by the use of injurious chemicals, which ensures the retention of all their natural strength and beauty of appearance.

Le Boutillier Brothers

West Twenty-third Street.

IN SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney have planned to sail on Saturday, Aug. 18, for the shooting season in England. They will pay several brief visits to friends at their country places as well as to the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, at Blenheim.

Mrs. H. Mortimer Brooks will give a number of entertainments from now until Sept. 10, when her daughter, Miss Gladys Brooks, is to be married to Mr. Thayer of Boston. The bride's uncle, Eugene Higgins, will be in Newport for the event.

Miss Katherine Gandy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard Gandy of 2 West Thirty-sixth street, sailed for Europe yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. William T. Cornell and their daughter, Florence T. Cornell, also were among the departing voyagers. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lyman Short sailed on the Friedrich der Grosse on Thursday. Miss Florence Morris and her brother,

GORMAN, SOLDIER IN THE RANK

SAYS OF CLEVELAND, WE NEVER QUARRELED, ONLY DIFFERED.

Tariff Reform, Economy and Honesty
Issues Enough for the Democrats
—He Is Not Considering Candidacy
—Negro Question. Out of Politician's Mind

Senator Arthur Pue Gorman of Maryland, who, with his wife, has been in Europe several weeks, returned last evening aboard the American liner New York. The Senator was affable, but diplomatic, not so talkative with the interviewers. To the question "Are you a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency?" the Senator said:

"I am not and never have been con-

Stewart M. Brice, who is now at Fort Harbord, will sail for the other side on Aug. 8.

Elihu Dyer, Jr., will lead his first cotillion of the season next Saturday night on the steam yacht Narada, belonging to Henry Walters. The occasion is the dinner dance given by Mr. and Mrs. P. Ambrose Jones. On the following night, Mr. Dyer will again lead the cotillion, at Mr. Astor's ball, while Harry Lehr will also lead from the lower end.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurry Hmlin, who have the Osgeod villa in Bellevue avenue at Newport this season, are expecting a visit from the Count and Countess von Larisch. The Countess was Miss Marie Stattenfeld, of the famous Lander family, a close relative of the Emperor of Austria.

Theodore Douglas Robinson did not go abroad recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson, but is staying at his aunt, Mrs. William Sheffield Cowles, at the Contes camp, on the upper St. Regis Lake. His cousin and fiancée, Miss Helen Roosevelt, is also with her aunt, as are several other guests. Miss Roosevelt will go to Newport to attend the ball to be given candidate, it is not the man, but the good cause that a good Democrat should think about.

To a reporter who asked the Senator if he would support Cleveland if the President were nominated by the Democrats, Mr. Gorman said:

"We have never quarreled; we merely differed."

About the attitude of President Roosevelt toward the negro, Mr. Gorman said:

"The negro question is now outside the pale of politics. It is heavier than a political problem."

"Will President Roosevelt's attitude make the South more solid?"

"The South is already solid enough."

"How about financial legislation?"

"Well, I don't know what to think. I understand that the banks are opposed to the plan proposed. The Democrats can't do anything this year; besides, I think it is up to the Republicans to frame the necessary legislation."

"What is your opinion, will be the issue of next year?"

"So far as the Democracy is concerned, it seems to me that tariff reform, economy and honesty in public office are issues."

"Will you take a prominent part in the night of Aug. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Barney will give a dance at their Southampton cottage for their daughter, Miss Kathleen Barney, who recently returned from abroad. This will be preliminary to the winter entertainments to mark her social debut.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting will give a luncheon on Wednesday and a dinner on Thursday night for Miss Alice Roosevelt. The rumor of the engagement of James de B. Cutting to Miss Alice Roosevelt has attracted much attention to the Cuttings. William Cutting and his mother, Mrs. Brockholst Cutting, are at West Bush again.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt will arrive on the steamship Mayflower at Boston. Mrs. Vanderbilt, it is thought, will go first to Lenox, as Mrs. Frederic Neilson is in Boston awaiting her arrival. Meanwhile the preparations are going on at the Point Farm near Newport, for housewarming festivities.

Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont is in town to secure novelties for the dinner-waiver-

Senator Gorman intimated that Baltimore had small chances of being selected as the place for the Democratic convention. He expressed no preference for any Democratic candidate for Governor of this State.

A NORTH AMERICAN FLORA

The New York Botanical Garden Planning an Extensive Work.

The managers of the New York Botanical Garden have begun the preparation of a "North American Flora," designed to furnish descriptions of all plants known to grow naturally in North America, from Central America and the West Indies, except Trinidad and other islands near the South American coast, will be included in the work.

The task will require many years and a great amount of exploration, both in the West Indies and Central America, and in the Western United States. A sequel to the work was the one of the original incorporators of the New York Botanical Garden and was a member of the board of Belmont will also visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., who have been at their Long Island club since last September. Mr. and Mrs. Dyer, Jr., and Harry S. Lehr will lead the cotillon.

The new Japanese camp in the Adirondacks of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt has attracted so much attention that many new cottages are to be built in the same style. Even the big house at the Twombly camp has put on a new appearance like Japanese, Japanese and entrance. Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt will entertain a number of guests between now and the middle of September, when they will sail for Europe.

The Misses Helen Brier and Kate Brier are on their way to Japan and will sail from California for Honolulu on Aug. 8. They have been in Yellowstone Park and when they reach their destination the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carpenter Griscom, the Minister to Japan and his wife, Mrs. Frederic Bronson, Mrs. Griscom's mother, will visit her later.

Miss Marion Fish gave a big dinner last ago.

The research work is being conducted this year in Cuba, Haiti, Honduras, Barbados, Dominica, Jamaica and California, under the direction of the Garden, while many other districts are being explored by collectors, from whom sets of their collection are purchased by the Garden.

The work planned as preliminary to the greater work, and two of those are completed, while the third will under way. The first issued in the form of a report is "The Birds of Mexico and Canada," by Dr. N. L. Britton, director-in-chief of the New York Botanical Garden. The second of the series is published in the form of the title "Flora of the Eastern United States." It covers an area of nearly south of that covered by Dr. Britton, extending to the Gulf of Mexico, including eastern Texas. It was written by Dr. J. K. Small, curator of museums of the New York Botanical Garden.

The third look of the series is being prepared by Dr. C. E. Fibiger, assistant curator of museums of the New York Botanical Garden, and its title, "Flora of the Rocky Mountains Region and the Great Plains," describes its contents.

STOLE $20,000 FROM HIS WIFE

Timbell Disappeared—Kaiser

A cablegram from Ambassador Choate received at Police Headquarters yesterday announced that the Kaiser Wilhelm II. had been vainly searched, upon her arrival at Plymouth, for William Timbell, who was accused by his wife a fortnight ago with skipping out with about $5,000 of her money and $15,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry. Timbell, who is a naturalized American citizen, came here from Johannesburg, South Africa, last month with a wife he had married about six months before. She had about $40,000 in money and diamonds, she says, and when she married him he was a penniless laborer. He got $10,000 from her on the wedding day, according to the woman's story, and then came here to go into business.

Le Boutillier Brothers

ANNUAL SUMMER SALE OF HOUSEKEEPING LINENS

BEGINS MONDAY, AUG. 3.

Our entire stock of Imported Linens, including Damask Table Cloths, Napkins, Hemstitched Lunch Cloths, Tea Cloths and Sets, at

SPECIAL PRICES.

Linon Sheets and Pillow Cases, Bedroom and Bath Towels and broken lines of richly hand embroidered pieces, which include Bedspreads, Sheets, Pillow Cases, Scarfs, Shams, Tea Cloths, Lunch Cloths, Tray Cloths, Centres, Doilies, etc. Also our stock of Linen Suitings, at

ABOUT HALF PRICES.

N. B. Many of the above lots are Wm. Liddell's Gold Medal Brand of Irish Table Linens. The superiority and durability of these linens are due to the fact that they are grass bleached in stead of by the use of injurious chemicals, which ensures the retention of all their natural strength and beauty of appearance.

Le Boutillier Brothers

West Twenty-third Street.

---

IN SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney were planned to sail on Saturday, Aug. 15, for the shooting season in England. They will pay several brief visits to friends at their country places as well as to the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough, at Blenheim.

Mrs. H. Mortimer Brooks will give a number of entertainments from now until Sept. 10, when her daughter, Miss Gladys Brooks, is to be married to Mr. Thayer of Boston. The bride's uncle, Eugene Higgins, will be in Newport for the event.

Miss Katherine Gandy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard Gandy of 2 West Thirty-sixth street, sailed for Europe yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. William T. Cornell

---

GORMAN, SOLDIER IN THE RANK.

SAYS OF CLEVELAND, WE NEVER QUARRELED, ONLY DIFFERED.

Tariff Reform, Economy and Honesty Issues Enough for the Democrats.—He Is Not Considering Candidacy.—Negro Question Out of Politics.

Senator Arthur Bue Gorman of Maryland, who, with his wife, has been in Europe several weeks, returned last evening aboard the American liner New York. The Senator was affable, but diplomatic, not so reticent, with the interviewers. To the also were among the departing voyagers. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lyman, Short sailed on the Lehigh River Gravel on Thursday. Miss Florence Harriot and her brother, S. Carman Harriot, will sail next Thursday. Stewart M. Drive, who is now at Mr. Harbord, will sail for the other side on Aug. 8.

Elisha Drer, Jr., will lead his first cotton of the season next Saturday night on the steamer yacht Murda, and his wife, Mary will be the hostess at the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. P. Ambrose Jones. On the evening of Aug. 10 Mr. Dyer will again lead the cotton, at Mrs. Astor's ball, while Harry Gordon will also lead from the lower end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hamlin, who have the Osgood villa in Bellevue avenue at also were among the departing voyagers. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lyman, Short sailed on the Lehigh River Gravel on Thursday. Miss Florence Harriot and her brother, S. Carman Harriot, will sail next Thursday. Stewart M. Drive, who is now at Mr. Harbord, will sail for the other side on Aug. 8.

Elisha Drer, Jr., will lead his first cotton of the season next Saturday night on the steamer yacht Murda, and the party will be the same as the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. P. Ambrose Jones. On the evening of Aug. 10 Mr. Dyer will again lead the cotton, at Mrs. Astor's ball, while Harry Gordon will also lead from the lower end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hamlin, who have the Osgood villa in Bellevue avenue at Theodore Douglas Robinson did not go abroad recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson. He is visiting his aunt, Mrs. William Sheffield Cowles, at the Coates camp, on the upper St. Regis Lake, and expects to return to New York with her. Mrs. Robinson is a niece of President Roosevelt, is also with her aunt, as are several other guests. Miss Roosevelt will go to Newport to attend the ball to be given by the Chamberlinder, Mrs. Astor, on the night of Aug. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Barney will give the annual ball at the Waldorf-Astoria.

"How about financial legislation?"

"Well, I don't know what to think. The Democrats are in a panic and are opposed to some plans proposed. The Democrats can't do anything this year; besides, the Republicans are not anxious to pass the necessary legislation."

"What, in your opinion, will be the issue of next year?"

"The tariff. The Democracy is concerned. It seems to me that tariff reform, economy and honesty in public office are issues enough."

"You take a prominent part in the next national campaign?"

"I am just a soldier in the ranks."

Senator Goreman intimated that the Balkans had small chance of being selected as the place for the Democratic convention.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting will give a luncheon on Wednesday and a dinner on Thursday night for Miss Alice Roosevelt. The rumor of the engagement of James de Wolfe Cutting to Mrs. Ogden Goetel has attracted much attention to the Cutings. William Cutting and his mother, Mrs. Brockholst Cutting, are at Wee Bush again.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt will arrive on the steamship Mayflower at Boston. Mrs. Vanderbilt, it is thought, will go to the gardens at Fredericks, N. H., in Boston awaiting her arrival. Meanwhile preparations are going on at

Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont is in town to secure novelties for the dinner-vaudeville-dinner-appeal that she will give on the night of Friday, Aug. 14, at Belmont. Mrs. Belmont will also visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt Jr., who have been at their Long Island place since their return from Europe. Elisha Dyer, Jr., and Harry S. Lehr will lead the cotton.

The new Japanese camp in the Adirondacks of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt has attracted so much attention that many of our sportsmen will be building the same style. Even the big house at the Twombly camp has put on a new appearance with its Japanese porch and entrance.

from the late Chief Justice Day will be in the work. He was one of the original incorporators of the New York Botanical Garden, and was one of the most energetic managers until his death some three years ago.

Research work is being conducted this year in Cuba, Haiti, Honduras, Barbados, Dominica, Jamaica and California, under the direction of the Garden; while many other districts are being explored by collectors, from whom sets of their collection are purchased by the Garden.

Three text books were planned as a preliminary to the greater work, and the first, well under way. The first issued is "Manual of the Flora of the Northern States and Canada," by Dr. Charles S. Gentry, of the New York Botanical Garden.

The second of the series was published

The Misses Helen Brice and Kate Brice are this time to Japan and will sail from California for Honolulu on Aug. 8. They have been in Yellowstone Park and when they reach their destination will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carpenter Griscom, the Minister to Japan and his wife, Mrs. Fredrick Branson. Mrs. Griscom's mother, will visit her later.

Miss Marion Fish gave a big dinner dance last night at Crosswatts and this and the musicale given at Wakehurst by James J. Van Allen for his English guest, Miss Chandos Pole, attracted the younger and older Newport acts. Mrs. Ogden Mills will give a party for her friends at Wakehurst.

The Japanese Legation in Washington, eastern United States, covers an architectural gem of that covered by Dr. Britton, extending to the Gulf of Mexico and including eastern Texas. It was written by Dr. J. K. Small, curator of museums of the Yale University, and the United States.

The third book of the series is being prepared by Dr. P. A. Rydberg, assistant curator of museums of the National Geographic Society, Washington, D. C. "Flora of the Rocky Mountain Region and the Great Plains," describes its scope.

STOLE $20,000 FROM HIS WIFE

Then Timbith Disappeared—Kaiser Wilhelm II. Searched for Him.

A cablegram from Ambassador Choate received at Police Headquarters yesterday announced that the Kaiser Wilhelm II.

IN SOCIETY. GORMAN, SOLDIER IN THE RANK
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney have

Mrs. E. Mortimer Brooks will give a number of entertainments from now until September when her husband, Mr. Mortimer Brooks, is to be married to Mr. Thayer of Boston. The bride's uncle, Eugene Higgins, has been elected to the Senate.

Miss Katherine Handy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard Gandy of 2 West Thirty-sixth street, sailed for Europe yesterday afternoon on the American liner New York. Her father, who is a senator, was affable, but diplomatic, not so reticent with the interviewers. To the question "Are you a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the President?" he said:

"I am not and never have been considering individuals, including myself, as candidates. It is not the man, but the Elihu Dyer, Jr., will lead his first cotton on of the season next Saturday night on the steam yacht Narada, belonging to Henry Walters. The occasion is the dinner dance given by the Dyer family, Fairbroke house.

On the evening of Aug. 10 Mr. Dyer will again lead the cotton, at Mrs. Astor's ball, while Flurry Lehr will also lead from the lower end.

The second visit in Belleville Avenue was to the home of the Countess von Larisch. The Countess was Miss Marie Stettin, of the County of Larisch is a near relative of the Emperor of Austria.

Theodore Douglas Robinson did not go alone. Naturally with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson. He is visiting his aunt, Mrs. William Sheffield Cowles, of New York City.

"On, the South is solid enough," said the Countess.

"Well, I don't know what to think," said Theodore.

"Understand that the banks are opposed to the plan," said Mrs. Robinson.

"I can't do anything this year; besides, think it is up to the Republicans to frigate the money," said Theodore.

"What, in your opinion, will be the issue of next year?"

"The Democracy is concerned,"

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Barney will give a dance at their Southampton cottage for their daughter, Miss Kathleen Barney, who recently returned from abroad. This will be the first time that the Barneys have danced in the city since the death of Mrs. Astor, on the night of Aug. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Fulton Cutting will give a luncheon on Wednesday and a dinner on Thursday night for Miss Alice Roosevelt. The rumor of the engagement of James de Wolfe Cutting to Mrs. Ogden (Tolet) Cutting met with the approval of William Cutting and his mother, Mrs. Brookholst Cutting, are at Wee Bush again.

at Boston. Mrs. Vanderbilt, it is thought, will go first to Lenox, as Mrs. Frederic Neilson is in Lenox, awaiting her arrival. Preparations are going on at Sand Point Farm, near Newport, for housewarming festivities.

Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont is in town to secure novelties for the dinner-vaudeville-dance-supper that she will give on the night of the 10th inst. at the Waldorf.

The new Japanese camp in the Adirondacks of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt has attracted so much attention that the collection of plants and animals in the same style. Even the big house at the

The second of the series was published last week under the title of "The Japanese Portch and Entrance." It covers an area of about 100 square miles, directly south of that covered by Dr. Brice's paper, extending to the Gulf of Mexico, including eastern Texas. It was written by Dr. J. K. Small, curator of museums of the New York Botanical Garden.

Plains," describes its scope. "The Grisons, the Sulzer, the Zappal and his wife, Mrs. Fredrick Bronsny, Mrs. Grison's mother, will visit her later.

Miss Marion Fish gave a big dinner dance last night at Crossways and this and the musicale given at Wakohurst by James J. Van Allen for his English guest, Miss Chandra, were the last of the season at the Newport acts. Mrs. Ogden Mills will give her first big dinner of the season to-night.

Plains," describes its scope. "The Grisons, the Sulzer, the Zappal and his wife, Mrs. Fredrick Bronsny, Mrs. Grison's mother, will visit her later.

Miss Marion Fish gave a big dinner dance last night at Crossways and this and the musicale given at Wakohurst by James J. Van Allen for his English guest, Miss Chandra, were the last of the season at the Newport acts. Mrs. Ogden Mills will give her first big dinner of the season to-night.

wedding of Miss Edith to Gustav Twining and Vice-Chancellor Frederick W. Stevens of Morrisown, to take place on Sept. 2 at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. W. Twining. The ceremony will be performed at the summer home of her mother, Mrs. Twining at Clifton, N. J.

East Thirty-first Street Bath Open

Another floating public bath was opened at the foot of East Thirty-first street yesterday morning, and as the news spread through the neighborhood the small boys, and a few of the larger ones, manifested a keen desire to bathe. Before night 1,200 boys had been in the swimming house, was towed up the river from Cojocares

New Patent Top Can. Compare quantity and quality with others. Seized out is economy.